

THE ANNOTATED IFRS® STANDARDS— Standards Required 1 January 2018

This is the official edition of the text of the International Accounting Standards Board's authoritative pronouncements required for accounting periods beginning on 1 January 2018, with extensive cross-references and other annotations.

Question: Why should people buy 'The Annotated IFRS® Standards—Standards Required 1 January 2018' book rather than the 'IFRS® Standards—Required 1 January 2018' (Blue Book)?

The Annotated IFRS Standards—Standards Required 1 January 2018 is the more comprehensive of the two publications. In this book, the IFRS Standards (as required at 1 January 2018) are helpfully accompanied by cross-references to other related Standards, Illustrative Examples and Bases for Conclusions. A unique aspect of the publication is that it contains agenda decisions of the IFRS Interpretations Committee—the reasons why certain items were not added to their standard-setting agenda. These are useful as they can include explanatory material referring to the applicable principles and requirements. Any users of IFRS Standards will find these cross-references and annotations helpful, from preparers to students and anyone in between.

Question: What are the key benefits of The Annotated IFRS® Standards?

This publication will save you time. The thousands of cross-references will guide you to the appropriate paragraphs of IFRS Standards and the explanations and illustrations that accompany those paragraphs. Furthermore, the annotations clarify aspects of the original text.

Question: How often is The Annotated IFRS® Standards—Standards Required 1 January published?

Editions will be published annually, usually in January, containing the IFRS Standards required at 1 January of that year. An online HTML (eIFRS) version of the publication is also available for subscribers.
